

I SEE TIME PASSING IN YOUR EYES

Words by Tom Attea

I see time passing in your eyes
And wonder what you're thinking of.
Are you like me and hope our love
Will be the kind that never dies?

I see time passing in your eyes
And fear you might be bored with me.
But then you smile and I can see
That all my fears were my own lies.

We'll be okay
If day by day
Time's only change
Is in the skin
Around our eyes,
Not deep within.

I see time passing in your eyes
And feel the need to promise you
I'll always love you as I do;
You'll never be the one who cries,
As time goes passing in our eyes.
