

WELCOME TO MY LIFE

Words by Tom Attea

Welcome to my life.
The door to it is open wide
For you to step right on inside.
And welcome, baby, to my life.

Welcome to my life.
I've cleared the past out of my heart
To make room for our love to start.
And welcome, baby, to my life.

No, you're not the first to try
To move in there but I
Have kept the space reserved
For someone who deserved
To live there with her love
And you're who I'm thinkin' of.

So welcome to my life.
Relax and make yourself feel right
At home; then I'll turn out the light.
And welcome, baby, to my life.

Welcome, welcome, baby, to my life!
